

Mrs W. so upset over her ~~bad~~ ^{rooms} ~~critique~~ ^{HEATED} all her ^{NY friends} ^{will read there it} seems - they all take Mexico City papers regularly she won't very keen to go, back to N.Y.!!

Dearest Mumm -

2 air mail letters & one ordinary last night & this am!
 I just found these views - aren't they beautiful - Not to be given away! - Mrs W. thinks still she would like her red on the au-broidery - & the ^{yellow or cream} mat - I believe that will make the difference - red not up close to the end: - Anyway the red frame could be "Duco'd" black if it looked awful - She wants it imposing considering where it has to go - so get it done! she is counting on it like a child - Got some dressed peas today! for presents - & found tiny little guitars & mandolins about 2 inches long - beautifully made - They have lovely leather work - but expensive - so none of that - they say it never wears out.

A decent hand bag for 23 pesos - Would you like one? It will wear forever + you will soon need a new one - they are pretty - dark brown, rather like Venice only no colours on them - you can send an air mail letter if you do - Little carved boxes - $1.50 (American) I may get one - but these little things will have to do for most people - Awful lot of pink too in the shops! Some lovely old things but 50 pesos touch - Tonight concert - Lalo + Brahms & minor so I won't write any more - The Conways have asked us to come after the concert for lobsters! - Tomorrow Mr Sanborn's luncheon & dinner at Mr Ewens - (the place they have those marvellous old Spanish things -) Mrs Conway wants us to go to Poble with her too - evidently a marvellous old place - we'll see - Best love. I feel like playing tonight!
Kathleen.
